michael barr explores the complex and covert networks of power at work in one of the world's most prosperous countries the city state of singapore he argues that the contemporary networks of power are a deliberate project initiated and managed by lee kuan yew former prime minister and singapore's founding father designed to empower himself and his family barr identifies the crucial institutions of power including the country's sovereign wealth funds and the government linked companies together with five critical features that form the key to understanding the nature of the networks he provides an assessment of possible shifts of power within the elite in the wake of lee kuan yew s son lee hsien loong assuming power and considers the possibility of a more fundamental democratic shift in singapore s political system this book examines the staying power of the people s action party a political party that has governed singapore since june 1959 a political titan with few chinks in its armour the party has kept winning elections under three prime ministers and singapore is about to witness a transition to the fourth prime minister the party s seemingly unstoppable sterling performance makes the issue of the durability of the pap highly critical in light of the serious weakness of the opposition and the strong performance legitimacy of the ruling party it is worthwhile asking the question can the pap stumble and fall addressing this question is highly relevant given that similar political parties and structures have almost all collapsed elsewhere the barisan nasional as the latest casualty with its defeat in malaysia s 2018 general elections with an extensive coverage on domestic and international issues up to date developments on the finalisation of the pap s 4g leadership the workers party town council saga and the efforts to form an opposition coalition led by tan cheng bock are also analysed in this book this is a bold project recording the lives of a particular group of southeast asians most of the people whose biographies are included here have settled down in the ten countries that constitute the region each of them has either self identified as chinese or is comfortable to be known as someone of chinese ancestry there are also those who were born in china or elsewhere who came here to work and do business including seeking help from others who have ethnic chinese connections with the political and economic conditions of the region in a great state of flux for the past two centuries it is impossible to find consistency in the naming process confucius had stressed that correct names make for the best relationships in this case professor leo suryadinata has been pursuing for decades the elusive goal of finding the right name to give to the large numbers of people who have in one way or another made their homes in or made some difference to southeast asia i believe that when he and his colleagues selected the biographies to be included here they have taken a big step towards the rectification of identities for many leading personalities in so doing he has done us all a great service professor wang gungwu national university of singapore aljunied examines how the singaporean government developed a comprehensive state society strategic relationship by securitising vital policy areas because of singapore s vulnerability as a global city state in the twenty first century the singaporean government has strategically renewed an existing form of authoritarian rule by militarising national security governance the main objective is to widen and deepen state power senior military trained civilian political leaders and bureaucrats use military personnel command and control terminology and strategy of war to deal with non traditional security challenges leading to the state's further domination over civil liberty and civil society aljunied analyses the information and communication health and climate environment sectors the case studies highlight the way the singaporean government has used varying forms of political engagement surveillance and legislation to limit civil liberty and inhibit the development of civil society this book is a valuable resource for researchers and students of singapore studies as well as for the readers of security studies with an interest in the global local nexus in a small state context it is a pioneering scholarly study on the national security framework and the use of non traditional security discourse to strengthen state power and social stability at the expense of political liberalism the twenty first century has been dubbed the asian century highlighting diverse thinker politicians rather than billionaire businessmen makers of modern asia presents eleven leaders who theorized and organized anticolonial movements strategized and directed military campaigns and designed and implemented political systems an in depth exploration of the strategic dynamics shaping east asia's future on the world stage east asia is the epicenter of twenty first century geopolitics where military economic and diplomatic strategies intersect in complex and often unpredictable ways as the region becomes increasingly central to global power dynamics understanding the strategies that drive the actions of powers there is more critical than ever east asia's grand strategies offers the first comparative analysis of the grand strategies of twelve east asian powers and reveals how they shape their foreign policies balancing external pressures with domestic political realities in this edited volume experts from the region provide non western perspectives and fresh insights into the unique factors influencing each case's grand strategy the chapters illuminate patterns that are critical for understanding east asia's role in global politics today scholars students and policymakers interested in east asia's international relations and the evolving dynamics of its grand strategy will be interested in this timely analysis of the strategic forces shaping the region and by extension the future of global power paradise has been widely perceived as somewhere on ocean islands or in distant mountains where people come together to set up tightly knit societies so they can live work and worship in harmony and peace for the first time ever in this widely researched work that bridges the utopian ideas and visions of east and west ambrose mong explores the writings of influential thinkers from ancient china to renaissance europe and today including thomas more teilhard de chardin confucius and mo tzu and even twentieth century political reformist kang youwei history of public services in singapore the inside story is a fascinating account of life at the centre of the commonwealth s administrative structure and a remarkable insight into how international diplomacy functions at the highest level on his appointment emekaanyaoku embarked on a path of careful political diplomacy often at odds with the more confrontational approach adopted by others and put the commonwealth at the centre of negotiating the peaceful rebuilding of a new democratic south africa the diplomatic skill humour and determination that emeka demonstrated in his handling of the this situation are trademarks of his career in service to the commonwealth drawing on a range of archaeological and historical sources gleaned from research in britain india singapore the usa and canada this book traces the geo strategic development of singapore from its first settlement in the 13th centry through the turbulent phases of the early modern period to the dramatic military events that have been such a distinctive feature of the 20th century
