we are witnessing today women being elected as presidents or prime ministers women that have been awarded nobel prizes that perform exceedingly in sports winning olympic medals women that excel in art that have defended the rights of the oppressed that have gone to space that are active in politics and are ceos of businesses and corporations women today are found in the most difficult jobs such as urgency paramedics workers in heavy machinery factories and in the construction of skyscrapers they are in research laboratories or as members of toxic materials management teams this was not the scenario 175 years ago on the contrary women since the cave times until the dawn of the twentieth century have been oppressed by the fact they were born as women social cultural economic and political roles defined by men in those times obliged women to stay at home raising children without being allowed to aspire to play a significant role in the construction of human history the explosion of women participating today in the social political and economic arenas of the advanced countries might give the impression that this was their situation in the past not true this modern movement of women engaged in a tenacious struggle for equality with men has given them unquestionable victories and a powerful consciousness of their role in the development of the history of humanity their victories were not given to them by men on the contrary it has been a slow process that has demanded extraordinary effort from women all over the world we are just beginning to be witnesses of the potential that women have and can foresee the brilliant future they are going to create for humanity appreciating defending and promoting this evolution is the invitation to participate in such a noble journey
